

open space – mind maps positions in contemporary jewellery

11 MARCH – 15 MAY 2016

Free admission!

NATIONALMUSEUM
DESIGN
@ KULTURHUSET
STADSTEATERN

An exhibition of contemporary experimental art jewellery. Thirty international artists show some 160 works that in different ways push the boundaries of expression, form, and material. Contemporary art jewellery is no longer only a status symbol or mere decoration. Rather, the artists in the exhibition emphasize the type of expression where provocation and aesthetics blend in a protest against tradition and convention.

Carsten Dr. Elen-Maurer Zlot, Munich
Mikko Mäkelä, soft toy pika-ku, brooch, 2015. Photo: Mikko Mäkelä
Eun-mi Chun, Rhinoceros, necklace, 2014. Photo: Mira Takala
Marta Mattsson, brooch, 2014. Photo: Marta Mattsson
Beatrice Brovi, Necklace II from the series "Expenditure", 2015. Photo: Beatrice Brovi
Sophie Hanagarth, Lipstick, rings, 2013. Photo: Sophie Hanagarth
Annamaria Zanella, 21 GRAMS, brooch, 2015. Photo: Giulia Rustichini
Norman Weber, Haus und Garten#5, brooch, 2002. Photo: Nationalmuseum
Aut Charlotte Ho Svok Binding, brooch "Dog Trophy", 2005. Photo: Nationalmuseum
Norman Weber, Pommes#, brooch, 2006. Photo: Norman Weber

NATIONALMUSEUM DESIGN @ KULTURHUSET STADSTEATERN

Nationalmuseum Design is the museum's temporary arena for form and design, presenting the visitors with contemporary and varied exhibitions within the field of design and arts and craft. We also offer design-related events and a shop.

Opening Hours

Mon–Fri 11 am–7 pm, Sat and Sun 11 am–5 pm.

Free Admission

Upcoming Exhibitions

Ingegerd Råman Nationalmuseum

3 Jun–14 Aug 2016

Applied/Art? It is about the money.

2 Sep 2016–15 Jan 2017

NATIONALMUSEUM @ KONSTAKADEMIEN

At Konstakademien (The Royal Academy of Fine Arts) we present temporary exhibitions featuring paintings, sculpture or photography. We also offer guided tours, programmes and a museum shop.

Opening hours

Wed, Fri–Sun 10–17, Tue, Thu 10–20,
Mon closed.

Free admission

Current Exhibition

The Artist, 11 Feb–4 Sep 2016

For guided tours, activities programme, and public holiday opening hours, please visit www.nationalmuseum.se

Changes may occur.

Carsten Dr. Ellen Weurer Zloti, Münch.
Mikko Mäkelä, soff by joko chi, brooch, 2015. Photo: Mikko Mäkelä.
Sun mi Chun, Rhinoceros, necklace, 2014. Photo: Mirei Takeuchi.
Marta Mattsson, brooch, 2014. Photo: Marta Mattsson.
Beatrice Brown, Necklace II from the series "Expenditures", 2015. Photo: Beatrice Brown.
Sophie Hanagarth, Loptick, rings, 2013. Photo: Sophie Hanagarth.
Annamaria Zanella, 21 GRAMS, brooch, 2015. Photo: Giulia Rudolph.
Norman Weber, Haus und Garten's, brooch, 2002. Photo: Nationalmuseum.
Aud Charlotte Ho Søsk Thing, brooch "Dog Trophy", 2005. Photo: Nationalmuseum.
Norman Weber, Portrait's, brooch, 2006. Photo: Norman Weber.

IN COLLABORATION WITH GRAND HOTEL SVD WE ALSO WISH TO THANK FCB FÄLTMAN & MALMÉN.

WHERE TO FIND US

Nationalmuseum is Sweden's premier museum of art and design. The museum building in Stockholm is currently under renovation and is scheduled to open again in 2018. In the meantime, visitors are welcome to our temporary venues at Kulturhuset Stadsteatern and Konstakademien.

Do you want to stay updated on what's going on? Follow us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter or keep an eye on our website, where you can also search and explore the collections online.

www.nationalmuseum.se

facebook.com/nationalmuseumswe

instagram.com/nationalmuseumswe

@NatMus_SWE

Sergels torg Fredsgatan 12

